

Otho Wilson Expresses Himself as Satisfied.

THE GOVERNOR'S TESTIMONY

Druggists Will Protest Against a Proposed Law—Death of Well Known Man—Additional Apportionment School Funds—Fayetteville Dispersary Advocates—Charter a Train—A Day's Legislation.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7.—Otho Wilson returned on the early morning train and stated that the Governor's charges against Major Wilson and himself were not sustained. He said the charges against him with reference to the Round Knob Hotel were disapproved by the Governor's own witnesses, and the charge about the eatinghouse was disproved by parties who had run the hotel prior to Mrs. Wilson. He said nothing was disclosed against Major Wilson except what he had publicly admitted. He says that Major Wilson and himself are thoroughly satisfied with the result of the investigation.

DRUGGISTS TO PROTEST.
The Druggists' State Convention will send a delegation to the State Legislature to protest against the passage of the bill introduced by Dr. B. E. Reeves, of Ashe county. The full text of Dr. Reeves' bill is as follows:
The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any merchant druggist or other person or persons to sell or offer for sale any patent or proprietary medicine or other like nostrum which do not have printed on the label in plain Roman letters and in the English language the correct name and the exact amount of each of the ingredients from which the compound is made.

Section 2. That any person or persons violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned at the discretion of the court.

Section 3. That this act shall be in full force and effect from and after December 31st, 1900.

TWO DEATHS.
A special from Asheville says: T. C. Starns, clerk of the Superior Court, died here yesterday at the age of 43. His wife and one child survive him. Deceased held at different times numerous city offices, and was at one time clerk of the Internal Revenue office. He was elected clerk of the Superior Court last November. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Mrs. Eunice Blair, mother of Mr. I. C. Blair, this city, died February 3d, after a lingering illness of several months. She leaves six sons and two daughters, who are sorrow-stricken at this stroke of Providence. Mr. I. C. Blair has gone to attend the funeral at Springfield, Guilford county.

EDUCATIONAL.
The County Board of Education yesterday made an additional apportionment of the school fund of 50 cents per capita for the school population. The amount apportioned made in January makes a total of $180 per capita for the school year. This is 5 cents per capita more than the school fund received the year previous. The total amount appropriated this year is $22,344.80.

The Fayetteville anti-dispersary advocates chartered a train and were here in full force to-day. The Senate committee gave them a hearing this afternoon.

A DAY'S LEGISLATION.
The local option bill, providing for a prohibition election in any county upon the petition of one-third of the voters in the preceding election, was loaded down with amendments and finally withdrawn.

Bills were introduced to repeal the law requiring dentists to pass an examination; for the Board of Internal Improvements to elect directors of the North Carolina Railroad; and to amend the constitution making a three term limit to all elective county and State offices.

The Legislature ascertained from the Governor to-day that there were two vacancies on the old Board of Penitentiary Directors and elected W. C. Newland and M. L. Bryan to fill them.

A bill was introduced in the House to amend the constitution by limiting eligibility to all elective State and county offices to three successive terms: during the past two years he had by the Governor's advice lent the penitentiary $50,000 and that it had returned $26,000, leaving $24,000 due. A resolution was adopted providing that if the fusion directors of the penitentiary directors try to prevent the new Democratic directors of the penitentiary from meeting next Friday the new directors can meet anywhere in Raleigh.

The Carolina Northern railway was incorporated from Goldsboro to a point near Florence, S. C.

A. H. Boyden and E. K. Proctor were elected members of the Board of Public Improvements.

The Finance Committee heard argument by Warren G. Elliott, A. B. Andrews, Cyrus B. Watson, William A. Guthrie, F. H. Busbee and John D. Shaw against the bill to impose a tax of from 1/2 to 5 per cent. on gross earnings of railways. All the speakers contended that the bill was unjust and discriminating and would cripple the railways and also prevent capital from entering the State.

A SILVER JUBILEE.
The Silver Jubilee of the Church of the Good Shepherd, which was to have been held next Friday-Monday, is by reason of the extremely inclement weather, postponed until after Easter. So bad is the weather that the cornerstone of the new church cannot be laid.

BAPTIST UNIVERSITY.
The Executive Committee of the Baptist State Female University held an important meeting here to-day. A program for a great convention of Baptists was arranged for a week in April, at which the president of the University will be installed. A number of prominent speakers will be present. All arrangements are completed for the opening of the University September 1. The Baptists are very proud of the University and have raised the last funds necessary for its completion and equipment.

The Secretary of State has licensed the Security Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Birmingham, N. Y., to do business in North Carolina.

WEATHER REPORT.
The weather report for January, as made up to-day, shows that the lowest temperature was 14, the highest 73; rainfall, 3.47; snow fall, 8 1/2 inches. Rain fell on 16 days.

It is said that the written examination by the Supreme Court of the 52 applicants for attorney's license, was even stricter yesterday than it was last fall. At that time 26 applicants failed to pass. Nearly all of these made another attempt yesterday.

Some of our pound netters have a few nets in, and are shipping occasionally a half box and box of fish to the Northern markets.

The County Commissioners met yesterday at the court-house.

Mr. R. A. Pretlow, superintendent of the A. S. N. Co., was in our little city yesterday on business.

Mr. W. S. Pendleton, of Washington, N. C., came over to-day to be with her sick mother.

The long spell of rainy weather that we are having is causing it to be very unhealthy.

Colored Soldiers Return and the Demand For Liquid Refreshments Increases—Continuous Wet Weather Interferes With the Trade.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Elizabeth City, N. C., Feb. 7.—The rain has continued to fall for three days and nights, not slackening up a moment.

The colored soldiers arrived yesterday and the barrooms did a flourishing business for a while.

The continued wet weather is delaying our farmers in their work. In fact, every branch of business is seriously affected. News gathering is a difficult and unsatisfactory undertaking, as in extremely bad weather there is little else to be found.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Feb. 7.—On the night of February 1st, the class of 1902 elected the following gentlemen for class officers: President, E. D. Sallinger; First Vice-President, G. B. Strickland; Second Vice-President, J. E. Swain; Secretary, D. C. Ballard; Treasurer, W. E. Crews; Historian, H. M. Robbins; Statisticians, J. E. Everett; Orator, P. C. Stern; Prophet, W. H. Hadley; Poet, L. Goodman; Essayist, R. R. Williams.

SILMA.
Selma, N. C., Feb. 7.—At 5 o'clock this afternoon W. S. Joyner, an employee of the Elmira Long Distance Telephone Company, started in a buggy from this place to Pine Level. About two hundred yards from the depot the horse became frightened and bolted, and Mr. Joyner was thrown violently from the buggy, his head striking the railroad track. Two gashes were cut in his head, and his leg was broken just above the ankle. For some time after the accident he was unconscious.

To-night he is resting quietly, his wounds, while of a serious nature, not being considered fatal.

HAVE NAMES TO BURN.
Kaiser Wilhelm and Other People Who Have To Be Announced in Sections.

Oriental potentates have been popularly supposed to head the list of rulers who are burdened with numerous and extravagant titles, but lovers of artistic justice will be pleased with the fact that Kaiser Wilhelm, the Great Young Man, holds the precedence in this respect. He has no less than fifty-five distinct territorial titles, apart from the orders conferred upon him (numbering upward of forty) and his ranks in various armies and navies.

Nicholas II., of Russia, has a fair number of titles, for on ascending the throne he was proclaimed as "Autocrat of All the Russias, of Moscow, of Kiev, of Vladimir, of Novgorod, Czar of Kazan, of Astrakhan, of Poland, of Siberia, of Kherson, of Taurida, of Grosmia, Gosudar of Pskoff, Grand Duke of Smolensk, of Lithuania, of Volhynia, of Podolia, and of Finland; Prince of Esthonia, of Livonia, of Courland, of Samigalia, of the Samoyedes, of Bielo-stock, of Corelia, of Pomer, of Ingur, of Perm, of Viakla, of Bulgarika and of other countries; Lord and Grand Duke of Novgorod in the Low Country, of Tchernigoff, of Riazan, of Polotsk, of Rostoff, of Jaroslaff, of Bielosersk, of Oudorsk, of Obozersk, of Kondisk, of Vitelsk, of Mstislaff and of all the Northland; Master Absolute of Iversk, of Kastansk, of Kabardinsk and of the territory of Armenia; Sovereign of Mountain Princesses of Circassia and of other hereditary princes and rulers; Heir-Presumptive of Norway, and Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, of Stormarne, of the Dithmarshes and of Oldenburg."

For the oddest titles of royalties, however, it is necessary to go to the East. The King of Arabia is Sovereign of the Universe and Luminous of the Sun, with Eyes as the Northern Star—a King as Spiritual as a Ball is Round, and Odorous as a Sweet Flower to His People.

The old Kings of Kandy were styled "Protectors of Religion, whose fame is Infinite, Surpassing the Moon, the Jasmine Buds and the Stars in Excellence, with Feet Fragrant to Other Kings as Flowers to Bees."
